

Formal Letter Writing Topics

1. You have just read an article in an international travel magazine which contained some information about your town that is incorrect.

Write a letter to the editor of the magazine. In your letter:

- correct the information in the article
 - explain why it is important for the magazine to give correct information
 - suggest what the magazine should do about this situation
2. People in your area are having problems with their internet connection. Write a letter to the company which provides the connection. In your letter,
 - describe the problems
 - explain how it is affecting people
 - say what the company should do to help
 3. You have seen an advertisement in an Australian magazine for someone to live with a family for six months and look after their six-year-old child.

Write a letter to the parents. In your letter,

- explain why you would like the job
 - give details of why you would be a suitable person to employ
 - say how you would spend your free time while you are in Australia
4. Your city council is planning to pull down one of the historic buildings in your town because they do not have funds to renovate it. As a citizen, you do not want it to happen.

Write a letter to the city council. In your letter,

- say what the importance of this historic building is
- mention why it should be renovated rather than pull down
- suggest a plan to raise funds and maintain the building in the future

5. You recently bought some train tickets for a journey a week in advance. When you went to the station to catch the train, you were told you could not use the tickets and the staff were very unhelpful to you.

Write a letter to the train company. In your letter,

- describe the problem you had with the tickets
- say why you were unhappy with the staff
- suggest what action the train company should take

6. You are enrolled in a study abroad course in another country. Your accommodation was arranged by the course provider, and there is a major problem with the accommodation.

Write a letter to the course provider. In your letter:

- Introduce yourself and describe the problem
- Describe the accommodation you thought you were getting
- Ask the provider to solve the problem

Informal Letter Writing Topics:

1. You play a team sport with some friends. Last week a member of the team had an accident and wasn't able to play with you

Write a letter to your friend. In your letter:

--Tell him which team won

--Describe the weather conditions that day

--Say how you felt about the match

Write at least 150 words.

2. One of your friends has asked you to be a partner in his new business.

Write a letter to your friend. In your letter:

- Give your opinion of your friend's business idea
- Tell him whether or not you have decided to accept the offer
- Explain your reasons for this decision

Write at least 150 words.

3. A friend of yours is going on holiday soon and has asked you to recommend a destination.

Write a letter to your friend. In your letter:

- Recommend a good place for a holiday that you have visited
- Describe where you stayed and what you can do there
- Provide one negative aspect about the destination

Write at least 150 words.

4. You borrowed an important textbook from a classmate last term. You now realize your classmate had returned home overseas and you still have the book.

Write a letter to to him / her. In your letter:

- apologize for the mistake
- find out how important the book is to him / her
- say what you will do

Write at least 150 words.

5. Your classmate has written a letter to you asking for recommendations regarding a tour that his/her cousins will be making to your area in the next week.

Write a letter to your friend. In your letter,

- recommend an area where they can stay
- suggest the spots they can visit
- offer to do something with them

Write at least 150 words. You do NOT need to write any addresses.

6. An English-speaking friend wants to spend a two-week holiday in your region and has written asking for information and advice. Write a letter to your friend. In your letter:

--offer to find somewhere to stay

--give advice about what to do

--give information about what clothes to bring

You should write at least 150 words.